PURPOSE:

The mission of the YAP scholarship is to provide financial assistance to individuals who have shown a dedication to decreasing the stigma around mental health and promoting YAP throughout their school community.

SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

For the 2024-2025 school year, Beaver County Behavioral Health in collaboration with ThinkSync, is awarding a $500 scholarship to two YAP Seniors who have participated in the program YAP for at least one school year. We recognize how much work our YAP students do to increase awareness of mental health and wellness in their communities and would like to recognize their hard work with this scholarship. Scholarship funds are to be used towards post-graduation plans. Applicants must be a YAP senior who is attending a training program, trade school, or a 2- or 4-year college/university post high school graduation.

CRITERIA

- Applicant must be a Senior and have participated in YAP for at least one school year
